

Our reference 0000022356

02 May 2018

Dr Camille Short
Medical Specialties - RAH

Dear Dr Short

ETHICS APPROVAL No: H-2017-101
PROJECT TITLE: The use of computer-tailored web-based interventions for promoting physical activity among men with prostate cancer: implications of design on feasibility, engagement and potential for efficacy

Amendment to intervention time from 8 to 4 weeks and inclusion of PhD student Ms H Evans.

The ethics amendment for the above project has been reviewed by the Low Risk Human Research Ethics Review Group (Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences) and is deemed to meet the requirements of the National Statement on Ethical Conduct in Human Research (2007) involving no more than low risk for research participants.

You are authorised to commence your research on: 27/06/2017
The ethics expiry date for this project is: 30/06/2020

NAMED INVESTIGATORS:

Chief Investigator: Dr Camille Short
Student - Postgraduate
Doctorate by Research (PhD): Mrs Amy Margaret Finlay
Associate Investigator: Professor Gary Wittert
Student - Postgraduate
Doctorate by Research (PhD): Ms Holly Elizabeth Louise Evans

Ethics approval is granted for three years and is subject to satisfactory annual reporting. The form titled Annual Report on Project Status is to be used when reporting annual progress and project completion and can be downloaded at <http://www.adelaide.edu.au/research-services/oreci/human/reporting/>. Prior to expiry, ethics approval may be extended for a further period.

Participants in the study are to be given a copy of the information sheet and the signed consent form to retain. It is also a condition of approval that you immediately report anything which might warrant review of ethical approval including:

- serious or unexpected adverse effects on participants,
- previously unforeseen events which might affect continued ethical acceptability of the project,
- proposed changes to the protocol or project investigators; and
- the project is discontinued before the expected date of completion.

Yours sincerely,

Ms Amy Lehmann

Secretary

The University of Adelaide