

On the pill? Script run out?

If you are aged 18-35 and use an oral contraceptive pill to prevent unplanned pregnancy, speak to our pharmacist today.

We're participating in the NSW clinical trial allowing pharmacists to provide eligible women with their next supply of the pill without a new prescription.

Scan the QR code to learn more health.nsw.gov.au/pharmacy-trial

You can choose to participate. If you are not eligible for a resupply of your pill, the pharmacist may refer you to a doctor or a nurse practitioner.